ABOUT US

We help international home & furniture brands enter, operate, and scale in China, by translating global brand strategy into local execution, channels, and demand.

- China marketing lead
- Market ops manager
- Brand protection coordinator

OUR SERVICES

CHINA MARKETING OPS provides a full-stack China market operation service for international home and furniture brands.

Our role is not to replace your headquarter's Asian team, but to act as your local operating partner, ensuring brand consistency, market relevance, and sustainable growth in China.

OUR SERVICES

We support global brands across six key areas:

Global-to-China
Marketing Alignment

China Digital
& Social Media Operations

Brand Protection
& IP Control

Go-to-Market
& Distribution Development

Search, Discovery
& AI-Driven Visibility

Market Communication
& AI Creative Production

I. Global-to-China Marketing Alignment

We ensure your global marketing strategy is correctly and consistently executed in China.

What we do:

- Localization and execution of global marketing plans in China
- Campaign calendar alignment
(launches, seasonal promotions, brand moments)
- Translation of global brand assets into China-ready content
- Coordination between HQ marketing team and China market

II. China Digital & Social Media Operations

We manage your official brand presence across China's key digital platforms.

Platforms we operate:

- WeChat Official Account
- RED (Xiaohongshu)
- Douyin (TikTok China)
- WeChat Channels (Video Account)

Services include:

- Official account setup and daily operations
- Content planning and localized storytelling
- Community engagement and follower growth
- KOL / KOC collaboration strategy
- Performance tracking and reporting

III. Brand Protection & IP Control in China

We protect your brand from misuse, imitation, and IP risks in China.

Coverage:

- Trademark registration strategy (defensive & proactive)
- Trademark acquisition and negotiation (if already registered by third parties)
- Monitoring of counterfeit products and copycat brands
- Support for enforcement actions and platform complaints

IV. Go-to-Market & Distribution Development

We help you build the right sales channels for the China market.

What we support:

- Market entry strategy (online, offline, or hybrid)
- Distributor and partner scouting
- Channel structure design (flagship store, dealers, project sales, etc.)
- Support materials for distributors (brand story, product positioning)
- Channel performance review and optimization

V. Search, Discovery & AI-Driven Visibility

We make sure your brand is discoverable where Chinese consumers search.

Includes:

- SEO for Baidu and Chinese search ecosystems
- AIEO (AI Engine Optimization) for AI-driven search and recommendation platforms
- Brand content structure optimized for AI indexing
- Long-term visibility strategy beyond paid ads

VI. Market Communication & AI Creative Production

We create high-impact visuals and content tailored for China.

Creative services:

- AI-generated key visuals (campaign images, lifestyle scenes)
- AI video production for social and advertising use
- Localized brand storytelling for Chinese audiences
- Consistent visual identity across all platforms

- Prime Location: Core Lujiazui riverside, affluent demographics, excellent connectivity.
- Premium Positioning: Curated mix of fine dining, fashion, luxury home, new energy auto, tech, wellness, and bookstores.
- Brand Benchmark: Home to China flagships of Poliform, Cassina, offering authentic Italian design.
- Cost Efficiency: Competitive rental rates in Lujiazui's prime area.
- Art & Experience: Integrated public art and cultural events for immersive luxury shopping.

OUR CASES

DIENNE SALOTTI

Dienne Salotti is one of our successful collaborations in the Italian furniture sector.

As Dienne Salotti's China market operating partner, we supported the brand across the entire market entry and growth process.

Through this integrated approach, Dienne Salotti achieved a structured, compliant, and scalable presence in China, laying a solid foundation for sustainable growth.

OUR CASES

DIENNE SALOTTI

Our work included China trademark registration and brand protection, ensuring long-term legal security in the market. We also led brand positioning and market communication, building brand awareness through strategic content and localized storytelling.

In parallel, we established and operated the brand's social media presence across major Chinese platforms, managed e-commerce channel setup and sales operations, and actively developed offline distribution partnerships to expand retail reach.

OUR CASES

COLMOL

Colmol is one of our key success cases.

We supported the brand by building and launching its e-commerce sales platform, enabling a structured and scalable online sales operation.

In parallel, we developed and executed social media marketing strategies, strengthening brand visibility and engagement across relevant digital channels. Through this integrated approach, Colmol established a solid foundation for digital growth and market presence.

GREATAIN

Greatain is one of our long-term strategic partners.

We have supported the brand across multiple areas, including brand protection and IP management, social media operations, and the development of its e-commerce sales platform.

In addition, we delivered AI-driven creative production, enabling the brand to scale high-quality visual and content output while maintaining a consistent and distinctive brand identity. Through this long-term collaboration, Greatain has built a stable, protected, and scalable digital presence.

OUR VISION

We are not a social media agency.

We operate as your China marketing and market operations team,
bridging headquarters strategy and local execution.

We work on retainer-based engagement, not one-off services.

China market requires consistency, learning cycles, and operational continuity.
